JUDGE'S INITIAL APPEAL ENTRIES (continued)

b. The Appellate Defender is appointed to perfect the defendant's appeal or assign other appellate counsel pursuant to rules issued by the Office of Indigent Defense Services.

c. Upon request, the Clerk shall furnish to the Appellate Defender, or to alternate counsel designated by the Appellate Defender, a copy of the complete trial division file in the case and, upon request, any documentary exhibits.

5. If a transcript has been ordered, the defendant in a non-capitally tried case shall serve a proposed record on appeal on the State within 45 days after all of the transcripts that have been ordered are delivered. If a transcript has been ordered, the defendant in a capitally tried case shall serve a proposed record on appeal on the State within 70 days after all of the transcripts that have been ordered are delivered. If no transcript has been ordered, the defendant shall serve a proposed record on appeal on the State within 45 days after the last notice of appeal is filed or given.

6. The State shall serve its amendments, objections or proposed alternative record on appeal on the defendant within 30 days if this is a non-capital case or 35 days if this is a capital case, after service upon it of the defendant's proposed record on appeal.

☐ 7. The indigent defendant does not read or speak the English language, but reads and/or speaks his or her native language of _____. The Court therefore authorizes the services of a language translator or interpreter during the pendency of the appeal for the purposes of (1) written translation of attorney-client correspondence, proposed issues in the settled record on appeal, appellate briefs filed by the defendant and the State, and appellate opinion(s), and/or (2) verbal interpretation of attorney-client communication at each critical stage of the appellate proceedings.

The Court further Orders that a language translator or interpreter with the necessary knowledge, skill, experience, training and education to perform the above services shall be selected and paid by the Administrative Office of the Courts.

8. The defendant has been found indigent in No. 4, above, the Clerk shall serve a copy of these Appellate Entries on counsel for all parties, or the defendant if not represented by counsel, and on each transcriptionist, no later than 14 days after the date of the judge's signature immediately below.
