

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT, FOURTH
JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN AND FOR
DUVAL COUNTY, FLORIDA

CASE NO.: 16-2015-CF-007825-AXXX-MA

DIVISION: CR-E

STATE OF FLORIDA

v.

MICHAEL RAY HAIM

ORDER SETTING JURY TRIAL AND PRE-TRIAL DEADLINES

THIS CAUSE came before the Court for pretrial hearing on July 6, 2017. It appearing that the case is ready to be set for trial, it is therefore

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED as follows:

1. The parties are represented by the following attorneys, who are designated lead trial counsel:

- a. Jeffrey M. Moody, Esquire, representing the State
- b. Thomas G. Fallis, Esquire, representing the Defendant

2. This case is scheduled to be tried during the week of December 4, 2017. Jury selection shall commence at 10:30 a.m. on December 4, 2017. The actual trial date shall be determined on the day of jury selection.

3. A final pre-trial conference is set for November 27, 2017, and for pretrial conference on August 7, 2017. The parties should be prepared to address at the final pre-trial conference the following matters: length of trial; scheduling problems (witnesses or attorneys); motions in limine; witness issues; rule of sequestration; stipulations, if any; pending motions and pleading amendments; need for additional discovery or ongoing discovery; time estimates for voir dire, opening statements and closing arguments; number of peremptory challenges; voir dire issues; pretrial publicity; number of jurors needed; admissions; use of exhibits or visual aids during opening statements; security issues, if any; and need for translator/interpreter, if any.

4. No later than three (3) business days prior to the final pre-trial conference, counsel shall serve and file written designations of deposition testimony, if any, and any objections thereto. Counter-designations shall be served and filed prior to the final pre-trial conference.

5. No later than three (3) business days prior to the final pre-trial conference, counsel shall serve on opposing counsel those portions of any video deposition or interview intended to be introduced at trial. Objections to any portion or requests for inclusion of additional portions of the video deposition or interview shall be served on opposing counsel prior to the final pre-trial conference.

6. Personal appearance of lead trial counsel (counsel who will try the case) and the defendant is mandatory at the final pre-trial conference. In the event both trial counsel for the defendant and the defendant fail to appear at the final pre-trial conference, a capias will be issued for the defendant.

7. No amendments to the information will be permitted after the final pre-trial conference. After the final pre-trial conference, discovery shall be permitted only upon the stipulation of the parties or as allowed by court order.

8. Nothing contained herein shall preclude the parties from scheduling hearings or additional pre-trial conferences, if necessary or desired, prior to the final pre-trial conference date set forth above.

9. Any motions, including without limitation, motions to suppress and motions in limine, shall be filed at least two (2) weeks prior to the final pre-trial conference date.

10. Failure to comply with the requirements of this order may subject the party or attorney to appropriate sanctions.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers at Jacksonville, Duval County, Florida, this 6 day of July, 2017.
